

A big thank you from the Marine Conservation Society!

Thank you to all who have given their time to take part in our Beachwatch events at Cramond during 2011. We held 4 events this year, including Beachwatch Big Weekend in September, and your help was very much appreciated. A total of 259 volunteers picked up a brilliant 341kg of litter. Well done everyone! And an extra big thank you if you are new to the group, as it is always a bonus to get new volunteers!

The first event of 2012 will take place on Saturday 28th January

I hope that you will be able to come along to this event, and if you can bring along friends or family to help out that would be even better.

Where to meet: the start of Cramond causeway

When: 10am until 12noon (at the latest)

What to bring: wear suitable outdoor clothing for January and sturdy footwear

Why take part? start the year as you mean to go on: burn off some Christmas calories while doing something good for the environment!

Contact Anne: if you are planning to come - it helps us with numbers of litter pickers needed etc. Please contact me if you have any queries.

Future Cramond Beachwatch dates for 2012 (all Saturdays at 10am): 21st April, 16th June, and 15th September (Beachwatch Big Weekend)

Thank you for your continuing support of the Beachwatch project at Cramond. If you wish to be removed from this mailing list please get in touch.

Other ways you can support MCS

The work MCS does in Scotland and across the whole of the UK, including Beachwatch, would not be possible without our supporters. We are a charity, and all donations and membership subscriptions go toward our work to protect our seas, shores and wildlife. All donations and subscriptions are gratefully received, so please take a moment to look at our website www.mcsuk.org for membership (only £2.75 per month for individual, or £3.50 per month for joint/family) and turtle adoptions (only £3 per month). Both make perfect Christmas presents! Please contact me if you would like more information or a leaflet.

I hope to see you on Saturday 28th January. Best wishes for Christmas and New Year.
Anne
